“ It's been over a month since I heard the news of your passing. I'm still in shock! Been kicking myself wishing I would have reached out over the years and asked how you were? How life had been treating you.. Because I promise I always did wonder about you. You were such a great guy with bright smile that made everyone smile around you. You are very missed. I know your in good hands but I pray for your Mother, your kids, and your friends and family. RIP you truly are an angel.

“ Jarrot was a true friend. And i am lucky to have so many memories and to have had him in my life as long as i did. He was more of a brother to me that anyone else and he had my back no matter what. I wish it wasn't real. I wish I could just call him it's so hard to believe he is gone. Fly high my friend you lived your life to the fullest so be the angel in heaven you strived to be on earth, and still show them all how it's done up there!!! I love you man. RIP
